

Advocates Lead Workshop Presenters and Schedule Moonrakers Brewery 6:15 (beer) 6:30-8:30 Workshop

Date	Presenter(s)	Topic
September 28 TH	David Magney, CNPS Rare Plants Manager, CEQA Educator Carol Poole, APA, Director of Planning, St. Helena, Retired	Welcome! Role of CEQA in land use. Understanding the vocabulary and acronyms. Natural landscape, General Plan, Community Plan, Specific Plan, Project – how did we get from here to there?
October 4 W	Sara A Clark, Esq Shute, Mihaly and Weinberger LLP	Identifying and commenting on environmental impacts: How to review an environmental document (EIR); compose and submit legally defensible comments. Key words.
October 12 TH	Tamara Galanter, Esq. Shute, Mihaly and Weinberger LLP	What is a Habitat Conservation Plan? What is the Placer County Conservation Plan (PCCP) and how will the PCCP affect CEQA reviews on individual projects?
October 19 TH	Independent Study	Find a project currently under CEQA review and prepare comments.
October 26 TH	Laurie Oberholtzer, Environmental Planner, former City Council Member and Planning Commissioner, Nevada City	Building confidence to address Commissions and Boards. Making your EIR comments to a peer and professional audience for review, encouragement and comment.
November 1 W	Representatives fr Cities of Roseville, Lincoln and County of Placer Planning Depts.	What is in the development pipeline? “Villages, Industrial Areas.. Universities, PCCP and beyond.
November 9 Th	Susan Rohan, Mayor, City of Roseville	Taking a seat Advisory and Elected Boards, Commissions. Learn, guide, advise, launch. Workshop series critique and next steps.

